Nina Kautchschischwili

On 4 January Nina Kautchschischwili, a famous Slavist, a great friend of our community for several decades, and the initiator with us here in Bose of the International ecumenical conferences on Orthodox spirituality, which this year will be held for the eighteenth time, returned from this world to the Father. We remember her before the Lord with affection and gratitude for everything she transmitted to us in these years of a road taken together.

On 4 January Nina Kautchschischwili, a famous Slavist, a great friend of our community for several decades, and the initiator with us here in Bose of the International ecumenical conferences on Orthodox spirituality, which this year will be held for the eighteenth time, returned from this world to the Father. We remember her before the Lord with affection and gratitude for everything she transmitted to us in these years of a road taken together.
Br Edoardo and br Adalberto took part in her funeral. Nina had left in writing her wish that the community might be present at the moment of parting!
